Program

for seniors fights scams

PALMETTO -- Manatee County's Palmetto Branch Library, 923 6th St. W., will host a program on scams and fraud against the elderly, presented by Slade V. Dukes 6:30 p.m. Sept. 6.

Learn about the local, state and federal resources to help fight these increasingly common crimes. Dukes is the program administrator of the Elder Consumer Protection Program at Stetson University College of Law.

The informative program is free of charge, and no advance registration is required. Seating will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Pact OK'd between LECOM and Everglades University

LAKEWOOD RANCH -- Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine has announced an articulation agreement with Everglades University, a regionally accredited, private, not-for-profit university in Boca Raton.

The agreement establishes an early acceptance program to which Everglades University undergraduate students are enrolled jointly by Everglades and by LECOM. The early acceptance program is designed to facilitate the admission of Everglades' students into LECOM's Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine or Doctor of Dental Medicine programs.

An articulation agreement matches coursework between schools. These agreements are designed to help students make a smooth transition when transferring from one institution to another.
