

Transfer Students and Credits

For students enrolling at Everglades University, transfer credits will be subject to approval by the University. These courses must be similar in content and duration to those offered in the program for which the student has applied. The University will consider unofficial transcripts, but official transcripts must be mailed directly from other institutions to Everglades University in order to be officially transferred. Students are responsible for having official transcripts sent to Everglades University from transfer institutions. Official transcripts should be received by Everglades University within the student's first semester.

Undergraduate Degrees

Everglades University requires that the student must complete the last thirty-three credits for a BS degree at Everglades University. Undergraduate transfer credits are granted only for courses in which a letter notation of "C" or higher was earned (2.0 on a 4.0 scale).

Graduate Degrees

Upon acceptance into the graduate degree programs, the maximum transfer credits allowed cannot exceed six credits as the final thirty credits must be completed at Everglades University for a Master's Degree. Graduate transfer credits are granted only for those graduate courses in which a letter notation of "B" or better was earned (3.0 on a 4.0 scale). Everglades University will only accept for transfer graduate-level courses which are applicable to the chosen major.

Transfer from Regionally Accredited Institutions

Everglades University accepts transfer credits applicable to an applicant's program of study from regionally accredited institutions. Everglades University accepts transfer of associate degrees that, upon evaluation, include the appropriate major course distribution without time limitations. Prior to granting transfer of credit for any course, the University reserves the right to test applicants or request that they successfully pass an examination administered by an Everglades University faculty member.

Transfer from Non-Regionally Accredited Institutions

Credit for courses from non-regionally accredited institutions which are substantially equivalent in content to Everglades University courses and are applicable to an applicant's program of study may be granted on a course-by-course basis. The acceptance of courses from non-regionally accredited institutions is contingent upon appropriate faculty credentials and applicable course content of the course to be transferred. Prior to granting transfer of credit for any course, the University reserves the right to test applicants or request that they successfully pass an examination administered by an Everglades University faculty member.

Advanced Placement Policy

Everglades University participates in the Advanced Placement Program agreement administered by high schools through the College Entrance Examination Board (CEEB). Under this system, a student entering Everglades University presents a nationally graded examination as evidence of his/her completion of a college level course taken in high school. To be eligible for an award of credit, a student must present official score reports with a valid score of 3, 4, or 5. Consult the Dean of Academic Affairs for specific credit awards.

Transfer from International Institutions

Credit from non-U.S. colleges/universities will be evaluated and granted on a course equivalency basis upon receipt of an official transcript. The transcript must be translated into English and evaluated by an approved translation/evaluation service.

Transfer of Credits from Everglades University

Students who are interested in continuing their education should first inquire at the college they plan to attend to determine the credits and requirements needed for entrance to that college. Transferability of credits is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Everglades University cannot guarantee transferability of credits. Everglades University does participate in Florida's Statewide Course Numbering System. Consult the Vice President, Dean of Academic Affairs, or Register for specific information.

Veteran Transfer of Credits

A Veterans Administration benefit recipient has responsibility to report all previous education and training to Everglades University. The University evaluates the information and grants appropriate credit, with training time and tuition reduced proportionally. The veteran student and the Veterans Administration are notified.

Policy for Awarding Credit for Military Training and Experience and Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Certificates and Ratings

Everglades University will evaluate for transfer credit prior military training and experience that is relevant to a student applicant's program of study using official transcript of military training and experience (Community College of the Air Force and Joint Services Transcript). Students who possess FAA certificates and ratings prior to enrolling in Everglades University's undergraduate aviation programs may be awarded appropriate credit only where applicable within a student's chosen undergraduate degree program. Credit is not awarded at the graduate level for FAA certificates and ratings or prior military training and experience.
